

Attach Air Pipe And Cable to Submarine F-14

Crew of Italian Submarine Known To Be Still Alive—Rescuers Racing Against Time In Their Efforts to Relocate the Ship.

Rome, Aug. 7 (AP).—Rescue workers, laboring all night to bring aid to the crew of the Italian submarine F-14, which sank in the Adriatic early yesterday morning, have succeeded in attaching a pipe to the crippled vessel in order to supply air to the 31 imprisoned men.

Official announcement was made that the crew of the F-14 was composed of two officers and 29 men.

Divers who went down to inspect the F-14 which sank after a collision with a destroyer during maneuvers, also were able to tie a steel cable to the hull.

The work of attaching the air pipe and cable was accomplished with great difficulty because of unfavorable weather conditions.

The crew of the ship was known to be still alive today and they were maintaining communication with the rescuers by means of a submarine telephone.

The position of the F-14 was definitely determined today and the naval vessel Aquila was anchored nearby. Admiral Foschini went aboard the Aquila and took charge of the rescue work.

Inspection by divers who went down this morning showed that the submarine had been struck by the destroyer near the stern.

Race Against Time.

The rescuers were racing against time in their efforts to relocate the submarine since it was feared that her watertight compartments might give way at any moment. The F-14 was built strongly enough to dive to depths up to 120 feet but as the submarine became older this maximum safe depth was gradually reduced and her maximum safe depth is considered now to be only 75 feet.

The submarine lies in more than 120 feet of water, or almost twice her safe limit. It is considered merely a question of time before the compartments yield.

Although communication with the submarine is being maintained, it is not known whether any of the crew were killed.

The first great object of the rescuers was reached early this morning when divers finally succeeded in attaching a steel cable to the vessel and in fixing a tube through which it was possible to pump air into the ship.

Efforts to lift the submarine will be started as soon as possible. But the work is being greatly hindered by heavy seas.

Latest reports received from the Gulf of Pola where the submarine sank indicate that the wind is freshening and waves are sweeping over the pontoon from which the rescue efforts are being made. It is only with the greatest difficulty that the divers can continue their work.

The accident occurred at the entrance to the Gulf of Pola, the Italian Naval stronghold in the upper Adriatic, at 8:45 a. m. yesterday (2:45 a. m. correct, eastern standard time).

Engaged in Attack Maneuver.

The F-14 was engaged in a naval attack maneuver. It rose to the surface right under the bow of the destroyer Giuseppe Missouri. The destroyer ran the submarine down and it sank almost immediately. The damage to the destroyer was slight.

The alarm was immediately given at the Pola Naval Station and the remainder of the squadron rushed to the scene.

Within half an hour divers were making their first descents. Despite terrible weather conditions, the work continued all day yesterday. As soon as night fell men of war stood by with searchlights concentrated on the spot. The divers worked without interruption in relays during the night.

The success of the rescue work, it was stated, depended entirely on the weather, there being reason to hope that the crew might be saved if conditions did not grow worse.

The F-14 is a coastal submarine of the Fiat Sanguisoglio type. It was launched in 1917 and was due to be scrapped within a year. It is of 256 tons displacement and therefore one of the smallest in the Italian Navy.

Bids Submitted For Two Dirigibles

Experts to Open Bids for Aircraft to Be Used as Experimental War Cruisers—Will be Capable of Carrying 42 Men and Be Modernly Equipped.

Washington, Aug. 7 (AP).—A board of American naval lighter-than-air craft experts will convene here Friday to consider bids for two dirigibles each of about 6,500,000 cubic feet capacity, to be used as experimental war cruisers of the air.

Three bids are said to have been submitted, two from domestic concerns and one from a German aircraft builder. At least two more are expected.

Rear Admiral W. A. Moffett, chief of the naval bureau of aeronautics, is president of the board. The bids may require considerable study and several weeks are expected to elapse before the awards are made.

Although no official announcement has been made as to what concerns submitted bids, it is known that the Goodyear Zeppelin Company of Akron, O., and the American Brown-Dover Electric Corporation of Camden, N. J., have made a study of the specifications. It is understood that the Zeppelin interests of Germany submitted a bid. They have constructed more than 100 dirigibles.

$5,000,000 Made Available.

Congress authorized the expenditure of $5,000,000 for the two dirigibles, with $2,000,000 available next year. The legislation provided that construction of the second airship could be canceled, if circumstances changed, and that in this event, not more than $5,500,000 should be expended on one ship.

Under the specifications the airships must have passed a speed test of 12 knots an hour before being accepted by the navy. The length is limited to 75 feet and the height to 155 feet, with the width not in excess of 127 feet. The gas containers must be separate and fitted to hold either helium or hydrogen, or a combination of the two.

A spacious control car, quarters for twelve officers and a crew of 20 men, a photographic laboratory and accommodations for cooking are required by the specifications. The vessel can be powered with not less than four nor more than eight engines and must have radio and all other modern airship equipment.

It has not been established whether provision is to be made for carrying airplanes, but it is known that considerable thought has been given to this proposal.

Inquest Into Train Tragedy

Mounds, Ill., Aug. 7 (AP).—A coroner's inquest was called today into the deaths of eight people killed in the derailment and wreck of two Illinois Central passenger trains, caused by a heavy piece of steel sewer pipe on the tracks.

Hospitals at Cairo, Ill., still held most of 52 injured who were taken from the wrecked coaches and sleepers.

The piece of steel blamed for the wreck was twice tossed from one track to another. It was reported to headquarters by train No. 203, which hit it after it apparently had rolled from a passing freight train.

The engineer of this train reported to the operator at Mounds that he had struck something. The engineer of the Chickasaw, one of the wrecked trains, was warned to watch for the obstruction and proceed at moderate speed. He was the pipe too late, however, and the pilot of his engine tossed it to the other track. The rails were spread by the impact of the pipe.

Before the brakeman of the "Chickasaw" was able to flag train No. 3, it struck the spread rails at 65 miles per hour, and plowed into the smoking car of the "Chickasaw" standing on the next track.

The steel coaches of the Chickasaw were crushed and battered and most of the dead and injured were taken from this train. Seven of its nine coaches were turned over.

Change in Gas Rates Suspended

Albany, Aug. 7.—The Public Service Commission has suspended scheduled by the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation, proposing changes in its rates for gas in Poughkeepsie and suburbs, Beacon, Kingston and part of town of Ulster, and Catskill and part of the town of Catskill. The changes were proposed as effective August 14 and the suspension by the commission is for investigation as to the reasonableness of the proposed changes.

NEGRO FOUND AN ALARM

Carrying a large sized alarm clock, a negro who gave his name as Citizen Miller of Wilmington, N. C., entered police headquarters this morning and informed Sergeant Simpson that he had found the alarm clock on a lawn on Albany street and thinking he might be accused of stealing it, had brought it to headquarters. The negro was unable to give the address of the house where he claimed to have found the clock and left it with the police.

Isaac T. Mesereau Dies Suddenly

One of Few Old Time Printers in Ulster County Dies at Fischer's Hotel—Was One of Founders of Kingston Express and Conducted Rosendale Journal.

Isaac T. Mesereau, one of the few old time printers in Ulster county, died unexpectedly this morning about 10 o'clock at Fischer's Hotel on East Strand, where he had made his home for the past few years. Mr. Mesereau had been under a physician's care for some time past. He is survived by one son, Arthur P. Mesereau of Boreasfield, N. J., and two daughters, Mary, wife of Chester A. Phelps of Boreasfield, N. J., and Louise, wife of Andrew B. Keating of Riverside Drive, New York city. His wife died several years ago.

Mr. Mesereau had been connected with the newspaper business all his life. In the days of the late Horatio Fowkes he was employed as a compositor on the old Roadout Courier, which will be remembered by the older residents of Kingston. Later he became connected with The Freeman as a compositor and for many years he was a member of the editorial staff.

Mr. Mesereau was one of the founders of the Kingston Daily Express, which was absorbed by the Kingston Daily Leader about two years ago. He was with the Express for a number of years and then sold his interest in the paper to Louis Haysrad and returned to The Freeman as a printer in the composing room, which position he held until he retired several years ago.

Founded Rosendale Journal.

It was shortly after he had disposed of his interest in the former Daily Express that Mr. Mesereau founded the Rosendale Journal, a weekly newspaper, which he published for a number of years.

In the old days of marching clubs in presidential campaigns, which are now only a memory to the older residents of the city, Mr. Mesereau was captain of Coxsackendall Gun Squad, which took an active part during presidential years in the many political parades that were held. Those were the days of the torchlight parades at night and many a man now can remember the days of his boyhood when his greatest ambition was to carry one of the torches in the parades that were held.

Was An Interesting Talker.

During the more than half century that Mr. Mesereau was engaged in the newspaper business in Kingston he had seen many changes in the life of the city as well as in the many modern improvements in the newspaper field. He retained a keen and active memory and was an interesting talker on events of other years. For many years Mr. Mesereau and his family resided on Spring street, but shortly after the death of his wife several years ago he disposed of his property and after making his home with his children for some time he returned to Kingston and resumed work on The Freeman as a printer.

Mr. Mesereau was a man of most genial disposition and was held in high esteem by a wide circle of friends. His body was taken in charge by Undertaker James V. Halloran and removed to his funeral parlors. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

OLYMPIC GATE CRASHER DISCOVERED, GETS THE GATE

Amsterdam, August 7 (AP).—An Olympic gate crasher's career, successful for ten days, came to an inglorious end at the entrance of the swimming stadium today.

A portable typewriter in one hand and a dozen pads of cable message blanks in the other, together with a strong American accent were the credentials which carried the gate crasher past the stadium doors each day since the opening of the games. The athletic devotee would pass the gatekeeper with a cheery "good morning, I am an American correspondent." Portable typewriters being exclusive American equipment here, he was always permitted to pass without question.

"What newspaper do you represent?" asked an American reporter who happened to be near the gate when the crasher appeared today. The latter was struck dumb. Then some more questions developed that showed his knowledge of English was confined to the phrase:

"Good morning, I am an American correspondent."

The gate crasher got the gate.

Dies of Burns.

Richfield Springs, N. Y., Aug. 7 (AP).—Ross Crandall, five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Crandall, of this place, died today in a Herkimer hospital from burns suffered yesterday when he was playing with matches. Gasoline ignited by the matches caused the burns.

Citizen's Band Engagements.

The Citizen's Band will rehearse tonight at the Elk's Club at 7:30 o'clock. This band will play at the big racing meet and auto show to be held at the Kingston Riding and Driving Park next week and the week after they will play each evening at the Ellenville Fair.

Feeling Runs High In Yugoslavia

Stefan Raditch, Yugoslavian Statesman, Seriously Ill—Regiments Drafted to Prevent Trouble in Event of His Death.

Vienna, Aug. 7 (AP).—There were indications today that feeling was running high in Yugoslavia with Stefan Raditch, who has been the cause of perhaps more political storms than any European statesman since the war, precariously ill. The Belgrade government was reported to have drafted several regiments for duty at Zagreb to prevent trouble in event of Raditch's death. Vladimir Hristovitch, editor of the Belgrade paper Jedinstvo, has been assassinated for attacking Raditch in the columns of his paper.

Dispatches from Zagreb said an unfounded rumor of Raditch's death drew thousands of excited persons of both sexes to the Croat peasant party leader's villa and that hundreds of them were remaining about the house awaiting reports from the sick bed.

Two specialists have been summoned from Vienna and one from Munich. Raditch suffered a heart attack Sunday. He was wounded June 20 by a Montenegrin deputy, who during a session of parliament fired at the Croat deputies, killing two, including Raditch's nephew Paul, and wounding three others.

There has been talk that the kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes formed in 1918 might evolve into a dual monarchy patterned after the late Austro-Hungarian empire. Parliament already is split, the national assembly meeting at Belgrade and the opposition members from Croatia sitting in Zagreb.

The meeting of the Croat parliament developed into a popular demonstration in favor of a "free Croatia." A series of resolutions were adopted refusing to recognize any decision or financial obligation undertaken by the "national parliament" at Belgrade. The resolutions also claimed full individuality for each of the provinces united in 1918 and full autonomy for the Croatian people.

Fears Communism May Seize China

Third International and Chinese Communists Believe Present Situation Forecasts Coming Victory of Their Movement, Says Russian General.

Williamstown, Mass., Aug. 7 (AP).—Fear that communism might again raise its head in China was expressed by General Yakhontoff, a former member of the Kerensky government in Russia, at a round table discussion at the institute of politics today.

General Yakhontoff said he had documentary evidence that the Third International and Chinese communists are unwilling to let China alone, believing that the present situation forecasts the coming victory of their movement. He expressed the belief, however, that Soviet Russia would not take active part in fostering communism in China.

General Yakhontoff criticized Japan's actions in Manchuria. "Personally," he said, "I have the fullest and sincerest sympathy for the economic difficulties of Japan, which needs badly an assured supply of raw materials to keep on with her industries and markets for the excess of her manufactured goods as well as a place to dispose of the excess of her rapidly growing population. I believe, however, that the solution of these problems does not lie in any sort of annexation of Manchuria, even a very gradual one."

"If there is a probability of the return of the communist influence in China, there is no better encouragement for it than through committing injustices to China by quasi-sympathy with Japan, and keeping neutral toward her plans of helping herself out of Manchuria."

General Yakhontoff's views on the possibility of a return of communism to China were not shared by Prof. G. H. Blakelee, of Clark University, who conducted the discussion. He said nationalism was the motive power of present day China.

DUAL MURDER LAID TO BOOTLEGGERS' WARFARE

Los Angeles, Aug. 7 (AP).—Three men shortly before midnight entered the home of Galtano Dinevitch, shot him dead in his bed and then fired with a shot gun upon his wife, Constanza, who died a half hour later in the police receiving hospital. Her body was riddled with bullets. The police characterized the double murder as part of a warfare between bootleggers and hijackers.

Bus Transfer Approved.

Albany, Aug. 7.—The Public Service Commission yesterday consented to the assignment by Franklin F. Club to Kingston & Water of the certificate issued by the commission on February 23, 1923, for the operation of the Club bus line between Saugerties and Albany. Club intends to engage in other business. There will be no change in the present operating schedules or fare rates.

Drunken Driver Fined and Jailed

Ernest Osterhoudt of Modena Pleaded Guilty to Driving Car While Intoxicated—Other Cases in Police Court.

Two years ago Ernest Osterhoudt, 27, of Modena, was arrested and convicted for driving an automobile while intoxicated in Kingston, and Monday night he was again arrested for the same offense. He was placed under arrest on Abel street by Officers Van Buren and Keesman and lodged in the county jail while his truck car was placed in the police garage.

This morning before Judge Shufeldt in police court Osterhoudt entered a plea of guilty to the charge, and was fined $200 and sentenced to thirty days in the county jail.

Osterhoudt asked Judge Shufeldt who was going to look after his wife and children while he was in jail, and was told he should have thought of that before he became intoxicated and was arrested.

Drunken on North Front Street.

Edward Dupbell, 32, of Holyoke, Mass., was found intoxicated on North Front street Monday night by Officer Van Buren and was lodged in the county jail. This morning Edward was fined $5 on his plea of guilty.

Cummings Was Jailed.

Charles Cummings, 21, of Brooklyn, who is employed by the Cornell towing line, called at the towing office on Ferry street shortly after 4 o'clock Monday afternoon in an intoxicated condition and became very abusive, using loud and profane language and starting to break up the office furniture. Cummings was placed under arrest by Officer Reed and spent the night in the county jail. This morning on his plea of guilty, Cummings was sentenced to twenty days in the county jail.

Charged With Assault.

Ralph Ellsworth was arrested this morning by Sergeant Simpson on a warrant sworn out by Mrs. Ellsworth of 22 North Wilbur avenue, charging her husband with assault in the third degree.

Later in the morning Ellsworth was arrested before Judge Shufeldt in police court and was represented by Attorney Chris J. Flanagan, who entered a plea of not guilty on behalf of Ellsworth. The hearing was adjourned to August 14.

Mrs. Ellsworth, who was in court, informed Judge Shufeldt that she thought she would have to see a doctor as her back was badly bruised where she said her husband had struck her.

Duncan Under Arrest.

George Duncan was arrested this morning by Sergeant Simpson on a warrant sworn out by Cornelius Dunham of 14 Staples street, charging Duncan with petit larceny in helping himself to a suit of clothes owned by Dunham and valued at $25.

On Duncan's plea of not guilty the hearing was adjourned to August 12, and bail fixed at $25.

BRIDGE RECONSTRUCTION IN POUGHKEEPSIE DEFERRED

Albany, Aug. 7.—The Public Service Commission yesterday rescinded its orders of February 9 and February 16, 1928, directing the reconstruction of the Delaford street bridge over the Central New England Railroad tracks in Poughkeepsie, and ordered a further hearing, following objections by the railroad that the order directing the change in construction was not served on it within the statutory twenty days following the final hearing. Day for the new hearing will soon be announced.

The railroad, on the original hearing, objected to paying any part of the reconstruction cost, alleging that the reconstruction was occasioned by the building of the Mid-Hudson river bridge at Poughkeepsie, claiming that Delaford street is in fact a part of the eastern approach to the Mid-Hudson bridge and that the cost of the Delaford bridge improvement should be included in the Mid-Hudson river bridge construction and paid for out of the bond issue for that purpose.

REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN BASE NEAR CAPITOL

Albany, Aug. 7 (AP).—Albany Republicans in their attempt to put this county, which in recent years usually has gone Democratic, in the Hoover column next November have set up a campaign base within a stone's throw of the east steps of the capitol where Governor Smith will deliver his speech of acceptance.

A store room, across the street from the capitol, has been taken over by the Albany County Republican Committee.

From his private office in the capitol, the Governor can look across at the headquarters of his foes.

They are the directors.

Smith Looking Up His Record

Whether He Will Have Something to Say on Subject Remains Uncertain—Mrs. Moskowitz in Albany Assisting Governor.

Albany, Aug. 7 (AP).—Twenty-five years ago, most of them nearly a quarter of a century old, were under Governor Smith's scrutiny today as the Democratic presidential nominee refreshed his memory on his stand, as a rather obscure congressman from New York's East Side, on various proposals.

The Governor, at his desk again after 10 days of vacationing and a round of important political conferences in New York, turned his own searchlight on his record to see in a position to answer opponents assailing his stand, particularly on legislation affecting the saloon.

Whether he will have something to say to the public on the subject remains uncertain. He has told inquirers that until he completes his study he himself will not know what he will do.

Stirred by White's Charges.

The activity of the non-progressive group of the blast against him from William Allen White, the Kansas editor, who last week made charges challenging Smith's attitude as a legislator toward the saloon, gambling and commercialized vice but later eliminated the latter two. While taking it easy on the south shore of Long Island, the Governor steadfastly refused to pay any attention to the attack of White, who has come to Europe, but now that he is back where he has access to the news, he is taking up his case. In that endeavor the Democratic standard bearer has not only the aid of trusted old assistants but of Mrs. Henry Moskowitz, one of the advisers, in whom he has great confidence. She is in Albany, temporarily forswearing her duties as publicity director of Smith's campaign, to assist her chief on this important mission.

Speech Partly Shaped Up.

Mrs. Moskowitz also is expected to render service in the preparation of the Governor's speech of acceptance. He has it partly shaped up, but it probably will be another week before confidential copies are handed to the press. The address will be delivered two weeks from tomorrow night, and it is Smith's intention to have copies in the hands of all newspapers before the event.

Declares Science Can Make It Rain

Evanston, Ill., Aug. 7 (AP).—Science can now make it rain, but the experiment is still in the laboratory stage, Prof. C. T. Knipp of the University of Illinois, told the American Chemical Society Institute at Northwestern University today.

"Ultimately the work may be done in the open," Prof. Knipp declared, "but whether science will be able to go out into an arid country and produce rain at will is conjectural."

When the process is perfected, the dust of the air and even condensation will have part in the procedure, he said.

As a demonstration, Prof. Knipp performed an experiment in his laboratory. He took a vessel in which the air had been saturated with moisture—just short of precipitation. When he expanded the air, the moisture turned into fog. Then he introduced the presence of dust—by lighting a match stick near the retort and allowing the carbon smoke to filter in. Immediately, the fog turned into rain.

"If the air over the city of Chicago were right at the saturation point," Prof. Knipp said, "and we wanted rain, all we would have to do would be to blow some of the city smoke into the air."

Nobody Hurt as Bus Overturns

The local police department was requested by telephone Monday night at 10:22 o'clock to send all available ambulances to Greenkill Park as a bus containing a number of passengers had overturned. When authorities at the park were asked about the affair today it was stated that no one had been injured although a bus had overturned. Neither Mower's or the city ambulance which answered the emergency call was used.

As nearly as could be learned the bus was parked near the hotel at Greenkill Park and suddenly started. It went over a knoll and landed upon its side. The occupants were able to climb out of the vehicle, the leaders of which were bent and much of the glass broken. A slight shaking was said to be the only extent of the passengers' suffering.

The Delaware Avenue Garage wrecking crew put the car back on its wheels with a crane.

An Auto Collision.

Charles Newkirk of New Paltz and John Cullen of Wilbur were in collision with their cars in Wilbur near the stone crusher, late Monday afternoon. Both cars were somewhat damaged, but no one was hurt.

Hoover Appears Impatient as Zero Hour Approaches

Days of Fastest Period—His First Bid To American Voters on Saturday—Great Speculation Over Key-note speech and The Radio.

Stanford University, Calif., Aug. 7 (AP).—Herbert Hoover, facing with a degree of impatience his zero hour in the great national arena of politics. The days intervening between his first bid to the American voter, here next Saturday and days of almost even though they are more or less taken up with rounds of political conferences and friendly visits with old acquaintances who call at the rambling stone home of the Republican presidential nominee on the side of San Juan Hill.

Even to a seasoned campaigner, and by no stretch of the imagination is Mr. Hoover that, they would be ones of more frequent speculation as to how the keynote speech will be received by the nation; whether the farm relief declaration will tend to quiet the turbulence in the corn belt, and whether the true spirit in which the various parts of the message were composed will get over to the people.

Then there is another element which opens a wide vista to the practical, keen and quickly moving mind of the engineer and administrator, who carries the hopes of the "Grand Old Party." This is the radio. From his long administration of this means of purveying the human message, Mr. Hoover knows this field and his thought is as to how many of the millions within the radius of the ninety stations that will broadcast the acceptance speech will listen in and how long they will stand by.

Will Speak Over 40 Minutes.

Thoughts as to the ideal length of a radio speech differ, but some surveys have placed it as a maximum of twenty minutes. That maximum will be more than doubled by Mr. Hoover Saturday as he could not compress a discussion of the complex situation of the day in so brief a space of time.

With his insatiable thirst for all the facts on any given proposition which comes within the range of his study, the G. O. P. standard bearer also is fairly well informed as to the kind of delivery that goes best over the air.

The spell binding orator who depends more on the tricks of delivery than upon the substance of his address does not do nearly so well as when facing an audience in which he can stir the most psychology. Shouting orators are out on the radio as the engineers simply tone down the sound to save wear and tear on the receiving sets, and those skilled in the art of appearance of a microphone put their emphasis upon important parts of their speeches by speeding up their word flow.

Will Abandon Silence.

There still is another reason why Mr. Hoover will be the better satisfied when he has officially launched himself on his campaign. Then he will be able to abandon the policy of silence which he mapped out for himself immediately on his nomination; a policy which his advisers hold has been one of wisdom.

He will be free to discuss issues and questions without waiting to deliver a set speech.

Those who know Mr. Hoover are convinced that he is going to provide anything but a lachrymose candidate. His public addresses will be few and perhaps far between and he has given no indication thus far that he will give offhand opinions on subjects political or otherwise.

HEAVY VOTE EXPECTED IN MISSOURI PRIMARY

St. Louis, Aug. 7 (AP).—A heavier vote was expected in today's Missouri primary election than in previous years because of the interest in the wet and dry issues which dominated the campaign. While the primary of four years ago brought out 655,564 voters, the number this year is expected to be greater by several thousands.

The polls will close at 7 p. m. tonight in the 4,160 precincts in the state. The penalties provided for violation of the general election laws apply also to the state primary.

Chief among the nominations before the voters were those for United States senator, which brought out three Democratic and six Republican candidates. The gubernatorial race was entered by two Republicans and three Democrats. The candidates are plainly listed as wet or dry.

NEGROES, NON-SWIMMERS

SEE FRIEND DROWN

Arthur Smart, 25, negro farmhand employed near Poughkeepsie, drowned Sunday night in the Camelot creek, when he stepped into a nine-foot hole. It was not until Monday morning that his death was made known by several negroes, unable to swim, who had watched him from the shore. When questioned they said Smart on his second rise to the surface of the water failed to reach a "rock" they threw him. Coroner Card is to hold an investigation after an autopsy has been performed to see whether foul play figured in the negro's death.

Interesting Trip Made by Warren

Auto Tour to New Brunswick and Nova Scotia by Charles A. Warren Covered 2,100 Miles—New Ford Cars More Numerous There Than Old Models.

Charles A. Warren and Mary Hagenko returned Saturday evening from a week-long trip which included a tour of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. The trip was made in a new Ford car, which was one of the many new models seen on the roads.

The trip was made in a new Ford car, which was one of the many new models seen on the roads. The trip was made in a new Ford car, which was one of the many new models seen on the roads.

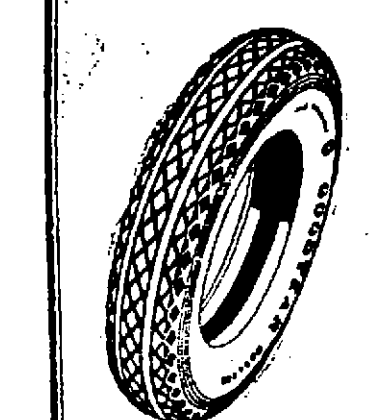

On the trip many New York cars were met with a few cars from distant points, including several from the state of Michigan. Throughout the country there were more new Ford cars than the old models and in Fredericton, New Brunswick, the capital of the province, a town of about 9,000 population, the Ford dealer had delivered 42 new cars and a shipment of 10 additional cars was received.

The amount of the tide which runs from 25 to 26 feet, automobiles are loaded on the boat on a schedule designated by the tide. In unloading the cars from the boat, docks of different levels were used with powerful hoists to pull the cars to the street level.

On the whole trip different roads were taken in going out and coming back. The trip out was made by way of Springfield, Worcester and up through Portland, Maine, while the return trip was from Augusta, Maine, south over the Mohawk Trail to Hudson and to Kingston.

Courtney Would Try It Again

New York, Aug. 7 (AP).—Captain Frank T. Courtney and E. B. Hosmer, the Canadian who backed his ill-fated flight to Newfoundland from Azores, would like to try it again.

The two men, who with two companions were picked up in mid-Atlantic when fire forced their plane down, believe if ships let their flying boat drift unmolested it will float to the Spanish coast and be available for another try.

"I wouldn't hesitate a minute to try it again," said Hosmer as he and his three companions arrived in New York yesterday on the liner Minnawaska which had rescued them at sea. "That's only a matter of finance," was Captain Courtney's answer.

The fliers entered this country "illegally." It was learned when immigration authorities served notice on the Minnawaska's officers that unless four men appeared at Ellis Island ship would be fined $4,000. They left the liner before the inspectors arrived. Captain Courtney allowing them to leave when assured by "all right." No difficulties were expected from their illegal entry but immigration authorities said the difficulties must be observed.

MISS, LONLIEST ARTIST, MISSING SINCE SUNDAY

Provincetown, Mass., Aug. 7 (AP).—Sam Hyss, known only as the "loneliest artist in Provincetown," has disappeared.

Hyss has not been seen since he wandered out on the sand dunes Sunday to study the cloud effects of an approaching lightning storm. His sole confidant at this gay colony of artists, a small boy, told Chief of Police John Williams that the man had recently complained he was tired out and sick of life.

Negro Drowned at Catskill

Thomas Carmichael, 27, colored employee of George W. Washburn & Company, brickmakers, was drowned Saturday in the Catskill creek. The young negro, who sought relief from the excessive heat, evidently drowned from the effects of a cramp, with which he was seized shortly after entering the water. Two boys on a raft from which Carmichael jumped, tried to rescue him but their attempts proved futile. The body was recovered by means of grappling irons shortly after the man drowned.

Taken Ill on Train

Charles Williams was suddenly taken ill on a West Shore train Monday evening and was removed from the railroad station to the Benedictine Hospital in the ambulance. He formed the police he had a brother residing in Kingston.

Insult to Queen Led to Feminism

Transfer Tells How Persia's Shah Aided Movement for Women's Liberation from Oriental Customs After Insult to His Throned Queen. New York, Aug. 7 (AP).—An insult to a queen has opened the way to feminism in the east, said Mrs. F. Evelyn Schopflocher of Montreal, Que., on her return from an airplane tour of the east in the interest of women's movements.

The incident occurred when the Queen of Persia attended a mosque unveiled and was insulted by Muslims, who failed to recognize her, declared Mrs. Schopflocher, who said that as a consequence the Shah, Rida Khan Pahlavi, became a leader in the movement to liberate the women of the east from the enslavement to oriental customs.

The Shah became so aroused over the insult to his queen that he rushed into the crowd with drawn sword and in retaliation wounded several persons.

Because of the Shah's interest in the feminine movement, she said, Persia has obtained representation in the International Council of Women, being the first oriental country to do so. Abandonment of the veil has become less of a stigma and she predicted that the Shah was not yet through.

During Mrs. Schopflocher's visit in Persia the Shah made it possible for her to hold a conference with 125 leading women of the country in the furtherance of the aims of the International Council of Women. Mrs. Schopflocher's tour was made in the interests of the International Council of Women, an organization founded for cooperation and unity among women of the world in matters of education and health. Most of the trip was made by aeroplane, it included stops in Turkestan, Persia, Arabia and Russia.

Singular if True

When a prayer is made to the presiding deity of Thrupathi, near Madras, or in the Palni hills, to save the life of a sick child, the child generally recovers, but it's hair becomes wavy and plaited. Try what one may, the hair will not lose its wave or its plait, but as the hair has been offered to the god, the new hair that grows has no wave or plait in it at all.—Exchange.

Rich Russian Soup

The national soup of Russia is thick and starchy. It is more of a stew than a soup. It contains sausage, cabbage and onions, all of which are fried before the stock is added. It is often flavored with tarragon vinegar. Other soups typically Russian are those having beans in some form.

Sage Council

If it is not seemly, never do it; if it is not true, never speak it; for your impulse should always be under your control.—Marcus Aurelius.

Market for Fruits And Vegetables

New York, Aug. 7 (AP).—(State Department of Agriculture and Markets).—Despite receipts of California Bartlett pears the market was slightly improved today on fancy, large, green fruit. Off-grade and ripe pears tended lower. Sales on the best stock were at $2.40-$2.40 per box. Common and ripe fruit realized $1.50-$2.05. Hudson Valley Clapps' Favor pears have begun to arrive in small quantities. Finest offerings commanded as high as $2.75 per bushel basket.

State green pea prices were higher.

particular on the very best large stock. Arrivals were light and trading moderate. The top price obtained for the fanciest was $3 per bushel basket. The poorest sold down to $1.40. Four cherries from the Hudson Valley district were in short supply. Valves hardened and sales on various kinds of black souars were reported at $1.50-$1.15 per four-quart basket. Receipts of cauliflower were more plentiful from the Catskill section. Offerings were again very irregular in quantity and sales ranged accordingly. Cauliflower business was at $1.50-$3.50 per crate. The celery market was sluggish. Demand was insufficient to absorb the supply and many consignments remained unsold at a late hour. Celery in the rough from Western New York peddled out at $3.50, occasionally $4 on strictly fancy, per two-thirds crates. Poorer quality in similar sized packages worked out around $2. Supplies of state lettuce were light. The market situation and values showed no important change. A large volume of the supply was leafy and otherwise unattractive. Crates of 24 heads of big Boston romaine as high as $2.75 and as low as 75 cents. String beans from upstate New York were in limited receipt. The price trend was upward on fancy, tender stock but the market was hampered by low prices on poor and coarse beans. Western New York carrot prices were lower. Receipts were moderate but demand less active. Sales on large quantities of muckland carrots in bushel baskets rarely exceeded $2.

C. & O. STOCKHOLDERS PROTEST AGAINST MERGER
Washington, Aug. 7 (AP).—Minority stockholders of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, organized as a committee with headquarters at Richmond, today protested to the Interstate Commerce Commission against the recent proposal of that railroad to complete its contemplated merger with the Pere Marquette System. The Richmond committee has opposed continuously the merger plans advanced by O. P. and M. J. Van Sweringen of Cleveland and their associates, who constitute a majority among the stockholders of several other railroads in addition to the Chesapeake and Ohio. The last move of the Van Sweringen interests was to ask the commission to allow the Chesapeake and Ohio to pay $100,000 per share for approximately 174,000 shares of Pere Marquette common stock now owned by the Nickel Plate. The minority protest today said that this purchase by the Chesapeake and Ohio would "largely add profit to the Van Sweringen interests" which control the Nickel Plate. The protest asserted that the price on Pere Marquette stock was "in excess of its real value."

Submarine S-4 Tragedy Recalled

Rescuers Faced With the Same Task as Confronted American Navy—Other Submarine Accidents.

New York, Aug. 7 (AP).—Sinking of the Italian submarine F-14 and the efforts of its trapped crew to communicate with their rescuers recalls the tragic days that followed the sinking of the American submarine S-4 with a loss of 41 men off Cape Cod last December. The Italian rescuers are faced with the same task as confronted the American Navy. The F-14 went down in collision with an Italian destroyer, the S-4 was struck by the guard destroyer Paulding. The slowly suffocating crew of the trapped messages to divers by passing on the hull with a wrench; messages from Rome indicate that men in the F-14 are trying to communicate with rescue craft. Weather conditions hampered the work of salvaging the S-4; conditions in the Adriatic were reported favorable for rescuing the F-14. The S-4 was not raised until several months after it sank. Sinking of the F-14 adds one more tragedy to the list of those in which the submarine craft of the world's navies have figured in the past decade.

Some Other Tragedies.

In 1925 the American S-51 was lost with 34 men off Block Island, N. L., after collision with the steamer City of Rome.

Other submarine accidents, as shown by the Associated Press records include:

The American submarine P-3, sunk in collision with a steamer at the Atlantic entrance to the Panama Canal in 1923 with the loss of three lives.

Loss of the F-3 with 92 officers and men at Honolulu in 1919. Sinking of the S-45 off Bridgeport, Conn., in 1927. Forty-two men were trapped and lost as the boat went down with an open hatch.

Largest Recorded Loss.

A Japanese submarine on its first trial run went down off Kobe in August, 1925, with 85 men—the largest recorded loss in submarine history.

Forty-nine lives were lost when another Japanese submarine sank in collision with the battleship Tatsuata off Sasebo in 1924.

In January, 1924, forty-three officers and men of the British submarine L-24 were lost off Portland, England, in collision with the dreadnaught Resolution.

The Italian boat Sebastiano Venturoli was lost with 50 men in 1923 during maneuvers off Sicily.

In March, 1922, during the war games off Gibraltar, a British submarine with 23 men aboard was rammed and sunk by a British destroyer.

An explosion aboard the E-2 in the Brooklyn Navy Yard in 1916 killed four men and injured many others, and in 1926 an explosion in the S-49 at New London, Conn., killed three men and injured nine others.

Explorers Find Lost Inca City

Observer With Aid of Binoculars Discovered Walls and Platforms of Unknown City on Distant Mountain Top.

Lima, Peru, Aug. 7 (AP).—Discovery of an Inca City where no white man is ever known to have set foot is reported in a telegram from the prefect of the Department of Cuzco to President Leguia. The lost city was discovered accidentally by a scientific expedition exploring the town of Machupiccho, which was found 16 years ago by Peruvian and American scientists. The present expedition was organized by the Cuzco authorities under the patronage of President Leguia.

One of the explorers was in a place called Intihuatana, which was an Inca Astronomical Observatory. From one of the windows of the room he saw with binoculars on the top of Huainapiccho mountain the walls and platforms of another town the existence of which was not known. It was thought probable that no white man had ever set foot there, since the mountain is surrounded by a deep ravine and its sides appeared to be extremely steep for scaling without careful preparations.

Some of the explorers returned to Cuzco while others remained at Machupiccho. They may try to reach the newly discovered town.

Disappeared at Time Conquerors Appeared.

This, they said, disappeared at the same time that the Inca Empire was wrecked with the appearance of the Spanish conquerors, fulfilling the prophecy of Inca priests that a day would come when white bearded men riding four-footed monsters would conquer the sun empire.

Machupiccho was discovered sixteen years ago by Hiram Bingham, now United States Senator from Connecticut, who was then exploring the Olanibambas Valley under the auspices of Yale University. He was searching for the ruins of the Choquequirao Palace where the Inca ruler Manco II took refuge after a rebellion against the Spanish conquerors. Choquequirao has attracted the attention of many scientists and explorers because of its Indian name, which means golden cradle, and because it was thought that the last direct successor of the Incas had hidden his fabulous wealth there. While Mr. Bingham was climbing a steep hillside on the Urubamba Canyon he unexpectedly discovered Machupiccho which had been hidden by a dense jungle for centuries.

The Cuzco authorities reported that after opening new roads through the tropical jungle the Peruvian exploring party arrived at Machupiccho. They found the town to be of the Megalithic period and one of the most wonderful examples of Inca grandeur in its imposing solitude amid the high and eternally snow-capped mountains.

Churches Oppose New Diocese

Wilmington, N. Y., August 7 (AP).—The proposed severance of parishes of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Northern New York from the Albany diocese to form a new diocese has met with opposition from several churches in the northern part of the state.

At an informal meeting of clergy and laymen held here a few days ago, resolutions were adopted condemning the plan approved by the recent diocesan convention. The parishes of Elizabethtown, Ausable Forks, Keeseville, Plattsburg, Lake Placid, Saranac Lake, Champlain, Rouses Point and Whiteboro were represented at the meeting.

A committee was appointed to draft a resolution to be submitted to all parishes affected by the plan, protesting against the separation. The committee was composed of Judges J. B. Booth, of Plattsburg; James Rogers, Ausable Forks; C. A. Thornton, Lake Placid; C. M. Palmer and Dr. J. Woods Price, both of Saranac Lake.

Caution Would Have Saved Lives

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 7 (AP).—One hundred and fifty-nine workers in New York state lost their lives while at work during the month of June, according to a report of the New York State Labor Department, just made public.

The ages of those killed ranged from 16 to 85, most of the accident victims being between 25 and 65 years old. With 66 cases unreported, the department listed 184 dependents, including 76 widows, and 66 children. The number killed was 52 less than in May, when an unusually high number of fatal accidents was reported.

The New York city district reported 101 deaths, almost two-thirds of the total, other districts reporting as follows: Albany, 22; Buffalo, 13; Syracuse, 11; Rochester, 10. Vehicles and falls headed the list of causes, the former causing 64 deaths and the latter 34. Seventeen deaths were caused by hoisting apparatus of various kinds; three were due to strains; two to electricity; two to machines, and one to falling objects. The report concluded as follows:

"The most noticeable factor is that very ordinary caution could have prevented many of them. To a certain extent legislation protects the workers through compelling the installation of safety devices. But the law cannot make provision for every possible accident. Employers and employees can take simple precautionary measures which may save more than one worker's life."

MUST NOT DECORATE TREES WITH INITIALS.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 7 (AP).—Gone are the days when twined hearts and groups of initials decorated the bark of every second tree in the woods.

At least, in so far as the trees of this state come under the control of the New York State Conservation Department, those days are gone. W. G. Howard, state superintendent of lands and forests, has issued a warning to tourists and others who use the state-owned public camp sites. In effect, his note of warning says: "If you must prove to later comers that you have visited one of these public camp sites, find some other way to do it than by carving your initials on a tree."

A man, whose name Mr. Howard declined to reveal, made a civil settlement of $10 with the department a few days ago, because he carved his initials on a tree at the Cross Clearing site in Franklin county. Failure to effect the civil settlement would have resulted in prosecution, according to Mr. Howard.

Lightning Strikes Fire Alarm.

Lightning struck the fire alarm system of Saugerties Sunday afternoon, which called out the department. The cause of the alarm was soon found out and the frames returned to their quarters.

VETERAN FIREMEN GUESTS AT SAUGERTIES.

Fifty-six veterans from the State Firemen's Home at Hudson were the guests of Mrs. George W. Eggleston of Barclay Heights, Saugerties, Saturday. The day was thoroughly enjoyed by the "old tops". The men arrived in Saugerties at 10 o'clock and spent a happy time until 12, when a chicken dinner was served. The day came to an end at 6 o'clock, after the firemen listened to music and speeches during the afternoon. Saugertiesians present were Fire Chief Frederick S. Van Voorhis and his assistants, Calvin Volk and Edward King, Jr.

Injured When Auto Turned Over.

Mrs. Stanley Durens of Ripley street, Saugerties, was injured about the back and received cuts on her arms and legs in an automobile accident near the Myers place on Kings Highway Sunday night. An automobile in which she was riding turned over during the storm. Dr. Luther Emerick attended Mrs. Durens.

Forming Gold Atom

Physicists say that if an electron can be driven into the nucleus of a gold atom and one electron removed from its valence electrons, an atom of gold would be formed.

The Week-End In Woodstock

Woodstock, Aug. 6.—Saturday and Sunday in Woodstock were characterized with various amusements and social functions. The week-end just past was a happy one at the art colony where things are at their best; visitors to Woodstock found themselves caught in the spirit of a holiday that was continuous.

In the village center part of the town, the Market Fair, at the intersection of these parts, found visitors about noon on Saturday morning. The fair, which was held in the center of the town, was a success. The fair was held in the center of the town, was a success. The fair was held in the center of the town, was a success.

There was an added feature—a bazaar—held in the center of the town. The bazaar was held in the center of the town, was a success. The bazaar was held in the center of the town, was a success. The bazaar was held in the center of the town, was a success.

Only a few steps away the Art Gallery had its doors open for the first visitors to the third show on the walls. Hyde Snyder was at the door to take the holiday. Inside there were whispers, folks busily scanned the walls hung so full with paintings, wondered which were the best ones.

confused by the gallery of artists. The week-end just past was a happy one at the art colony where things are at their best; visitors to Woodstock found themselves caught in the spirit of a holiday that was continuous.

Let Your Message "Burn" In the Eyes of the Passer-by

A progressive city or town is one well supplied with good electric signs. Manufacturers and managers of commercial establishments are realizing more and more the value of electric signs, which when properly designed, will attract the attention of everyone passing within the range of the display.

Light in movement and color particularly compel the attention. A well lighted "downtown" district is always inhabited and because of this fact, if for no other reason, merchants have realized a return from the investment which more than justifies the expenditures.

FACIAL CANCER CASES CURED BY DR. KEEFE

For Many Years Dr. C. F. Keefe Has Been Curing Face Cancers,
Using Methods Known Only to Him—He Has Cured Ten
Cases Since May 1.

Can facial cancer be cured?

Ask William J. Tierney of 197 Abel street and he will say emphatically that it can, and that after ten years' treatment by other physicians he was finally cured by Dr. C. F. Keefe, of 115 Pearl street, Kingston, N. Y.

Mr. Tierney is employed by the Dinewater Lake Ice Company delivering ice. For the past ten years he had been afflicted with a cancer on his left cheek. Medical treatment had proven futile until he was induced to see Dr. Keefe.

It was May 15 of this year that Mr. Tierney called to see Dr. Keefe. Two months later, on July 15, he was discharged as cured.

The following photographs show Mr. Tierney before he was cured by Dr. Keefe and as he is today:

Girl Scouts' Camp On Borden Farms

Camp Wendy is the name of the beautiful summer encampment of the Kingston County Girl Scouts, located on the picturesque Borden farms at Wallkill. The girls have been enjoying the use of a large tract of land bordered on the west by an artificial lake and on the east by an open area of trees.

Miss Marion Borden, the proprietor of this lake district and surrounding country, has been making it the most inviting spot of water in the county. The camp is found in the woods. There are boats, trees, and a beautiful view of the lake.

At present there are in attendance from Suffern, New Paltz, Kingston, Poughkeepsie, White Plains, Wallkill, N. Y., and from Beacon, Teaneck and Bogota, N. J.

The central building, Peter Pan, is a commodious building equipped with a kitchen at one end and a suitable kitchen at the other, suggesting various uses.

The infirmary, located over in the corner of the grove nearer the administration building, is in charge of a graduate nurse.

The athletic field is located on a light plateau to the east of the grove. This is a large field that has been so carefully graded, rolled and equipped that it would be a credit to a good-sized high school.

But a camp like a school should not be judged alone by its material aspects. Camp Wendy is the successful institution it is because it has Miss Marion Borden and the "Peter Pan" country to thank for its existence, and Miss Mabel Shannon and a trustworthy faculty of counselors to direct its activities.

If anyone would see an organization that is run effectively without friction, governed exactly without domination, a society in which the individual is supreme and yet each contributing to the best good of all, he might well visit and carefully study Camp Wendy. Visitors are welcome Saturdays and Sundays.

101 Ranch Circus Showed In Rain

No Covering Over Area Used by Performers. Who Case Many Spills Due to Rain and Mud Adding to Thrill of Daring Acts.

Despite the down-pour of rain Monday night the 101 Ranch Wild West Circus showed the best of the Miller circus. The show was crowded with an audience of 1000. The wet weather, however, added to the thrill of the performance. The performers, many of whom were drenched, continued to perform with a determination that was commendable. The show was a success, and the audience was well entertained.

The muddy ground covered by the performers, who added to the delight of the spectators, unfortunately caused several accidents. The condition of the ground apparently caused several accidents to be eliminated. There was no covering over the area used by the show people. The riders did not seem to mind the mud, and the show was a success.

A great many watched the circus back for their trip to Amsterdam. The animals and wagons were loaded on to cars near the Flatbush avenue crossing. The rain seemed to create no disadvantage for the workers, who put the show on the cars with much efficiency. The onlookers were given a thrill when one of the steers used in the wild west performance broke loose from the herd while being loaded on the train. The cowboys captured the animal in a short time and the anxious onlookers dismounted from places they occupied on fences and flat-tops to get out of the path of the runaway. Elephants were the only other animals used in the truly wild west circus besides horses, steers and dogs.

Fountain Principles

Grades Exit at Versailles are fed from reservoirs at Marley. When water is led from reservoirs through a pipe to an office suitably placed at a lower level it will spout upward to a height of a little less than that of the level in the reservoir. This is the principle upon which the fountains of Versailles operate.

Homemade Sealing Wax

Melting together equal parts of shoemakers' wax and resin produces an acceptable sealing wax. This should be done in a pan over hot water to prevent scorching.

Tagging Major League Bases

(By Herbert W. Barker, Associated Press Sports Writer.)

Recipients of western hospitality for more than two years, Miller Huggins' punch-drunk Yankees rapidly are discovering that they're worn out their welcome beyond the Alleghenies.

The Yanks swept everything before them last year in the west, taking 32 of the 44 games they played in Detroit, Cleveland, Chicago and St. Louis. In 1926 they took 25 of 47 games from the same teams, Cleveland being the only club to break better than even. The Indians turned that particular trick not only in 1926 but also last year.

Early in the present campaign it looked like the west would offer even less resistance to the powerful attack of murderer's row, for the champions won nine games in 13 on their first invasion of 1928.

They're paying for that hospitality now.

When Willie Kamm socked a triple in the 15th at Chicago yesterday, scoring Bib Falk with the run that enabled the White Sox to trim the Yankees, 5 to 4, it marked the champions' tenth reverse in 15 starts since they invaded the west for the second time on July 25.

Fortunately enough for Miller Huggins, the Philadelphia Athletics, for some unknown reason, took it into their head to lose to Detroit, 5 to 3, thus leaving the White Elephants three and a half games back of the Yankees in the duel for first place in the American League. Kamm's timely long distance clout brought the Yankees' lead to 1-0, and allowed the Yanks only two hits the rest of the distance—seven innings to be exact. George Pipgras was the third and last Yankee pitcher and as such, was charged with the defeat.

Connie Mack picked George Earnshaw to face the Tigers and lived to regret it. He was pounded out after less than four innings and Eddie Rommel took up the burden with a three-run deficit. This disadvantage remained the same until the end, for every Athletic rally was matched by one just as good by the Tigers.

Terrific clouting by Ralph Kress and Heinie Manush was the high spot in the St. Louis Browns' triumph over the Boston Red Sox, 9 to 4. Manush and Kress each collected a triple, double and a single in four times at the plate.

Cleveland and Washington divided a double bill, the Indians taking the first game, 7 to 4, and the Senators the second, 11 to 2. Pitchers dominated in each game, Miller for the Indians in the opener and Hadley for the Senators in the second. Joe Judge hit two doubles, a triple and two singles in five chances in the nightcap.

Rain or wet grounds put a quietus on the National League campaign for the day except at Philadelphia, where Burt Shotton's Phils surprised everybody, including themselves, by shellacking the Chicago Cubs in both ends of a twin bill, 8 to 7 and 5 to 1. Hack Wilson furnished the only consolation for the Cubs by driving out two homers in the first game—his 25th and 26th of the season. The opener was a loose-ly-played, free-hitting affair while the second saw Alex Ferguson outpitch Charlie Root by a wide margin.

Industrial League Game Tonight

The rain again washed out the Industrial League game which was scheduled for Monday. This evening the West Shore and Hercules crews bats at the Athletic Field at 8:15 sharp. Meekins and Hider will form the Hallowood battery; Mader and Kozlowicz the Hercules.

Rondouts Face 3-Game Schedule

Manager Artie Golnek's Rondout A. C. baseball team now faces three games, the first of which will be played with the Apollos of the Industrial League this evening at 8:15 on the Block Park diamond, provided weather conditions are favorable. Thursday evening the Post Office City nine will be the guests of the Rondouts at the Albert street park, while Sunday afternoon the Colonial A. C. will invade that area in an effort to put a crimp in the Rondouts' good standing.

The Rondout A. C. has 15 wins to its credit out of 26 games played. The nine has played some of the best talent of the section during their season on the diamond and hope to finish the baseball year with a sterling record. The Seventh ward aggregation will make every effort to overcome the Colonials Sunday.

The Colonials, although they got away to a late start, began to make good on the diamond and are holding their own. The team has met some stiff opposition but dropped only one tilt. Matty Deegan is now coaching the Colonials. It is expected that his hints will have a great bearing on the Sunday game at Block Park.

Fans seem to be falling off in attendance at the games on the Block Park diamond. It is hoped that the following the Rondouts had at the opening of the season will turn out to see them play the Colonials Sunday. Undoubtedly there will be a number of Colonial routers on the aid. Manager Artie Golnek has been making every effort to stage interesting games at the Block Park playground, which deserve better patronage than the club has been receiving lately. The contest that the Rondouts won from the Kingston All-Stars 5-3 last Sunday was of sterling quality to watch, owing to the calibre of the players, and the coming game promises to be of the same standard.

Olympic Retains Women's Events

Amsterdam, Aug. 7 (AP).—The International Amateur Athletic Federation, after a spirited debate, today voted to retain the women's events in the Olympic program.

By a vote of 14 to 5 it rejected a proposal of ten events asked by the Women's International Sports Federation.

The new women's event, which was the most hotly contested of all the proposals, was rejected by a 12 to 5 vote with one abstention, while the proposal to add 200 meters and 400 meters was also failed to command a majority.

The 10 events, which at American suggestion found favor with the federation's delegates, were the 100 meters flat, the 400 meters relay, the high jump, discus throw, the javelin and the 80 meters hurdle.

Berg Makes Good

Bob Robinson, playing his first season as a catcher, not only is doing a good job behind the bat for the White Sox, but he's also hitting harder than ever before. His present average is a cool .338, which tops the Sox club. Mo's blows, in addition to being frequent, usually come in timely spots.

After engaging in several exhibition bouts, Kid Williams, former bantamweight champion, now thirty-five, has decided to take one more fling at the ring game.

Lloyd Hahn, the twenty-year-old sprinter of Falls City, Neb., holds the record for the half-mile. His time is 1 min. 52 2-5 sec., the fastest ever recorded for the distance.

Miss Beatrice Spears, sixteen-year-old champion swimmer, is believed to be the youngest aspirant to attempt the English channel swim. She is now in training for the ordeal.

George H. Tipling, Cleveland sportsman, announced recently he had closed negotiations with W. H. Cane, Goshen, N. Y., for the purchase of the trotter, Sam Williams. The reported purchase price was $25,000.

Coach "Pop" Warner of Stanford university football team will no doubt be ready to give the West Point grid-men a real battle when they meet for the first time in New York city December 1. Warner says: "I believe that I have more good material on the present squad than I have had in any squad in my thirty-three years of coaching. However, I have had squads which contained eleven better players."

Noted Speed Star at Race Meet Here

BOB ROBINSON.

Among the galaxy of speed stars who have filed entry for the big program of A.A.A. professional, sanctioned auto races, scheduled to go Friday afternoon, August 17, at the Kingston Fair Grounds track, is Bob Robinson.

Robinson needs no introduction to followers of dirt track auto racing, as he is without doubt the world's greatest racing driver, having more actual racing miles over the dirt courses of the country to his credit than any other two drivers.

Robinson, unlike many drivers, usually plays a safety first and waiting game. While not afraid, he believes in saving his car and letting the other fellow break up, as he gradually climbs into the advantageous positions. He can trail a competitor for many laps, remaining directly behind his opponent's car. This is a nerve-racking trick, that generally spells disaster for the leading car, as

Refuses to Play With British

Amsterdam, Aug. 7 (AP).—The British Empire will be without at least one strong arm in its meet against the United States August 11. Pat O'Callaghan, 22-year-old Irish doctor from County Cork who won the Olympic hammer throw, has declined to occupy a place on the British team and created something of a sensation by the manner of his refusal.

Invited to join the empire forces by the English, O'Callaghan replied: "I have seen too many Irish boys shot down in front of their homes to be willing to represent the British and I know too well how America has provided homes for the Irish to compete against her."

O'Callaghan may follow the example of so many of his countrymen and go to the United States. The New York A. C. was ready to open its doors to him and welcome another addition to the Irishmen, who have made hammer throwing famous.

The Olympic champion has been a competitor for only a year and a half but now he expects to take lessons from the daddy of the hammer throwers, John Flanagan, who won the Olympic championships in 1906-1908, for the Irish American A. C., New York, and really learns how to toss the 16-pound ball. Flanagan now lives in Ireland.

O'Callaghan went to see Flanagan before the Olympics but the latter told him: "Don't attempt to change your style now. Stick to it until after the Olympics and then come to me and I'll show you a few tricks."

WALLACE BEERY in Blindfold test of leading cigarettes . . . says no brand can "double" for OLD GOLD

WALLACE BEERY
... popular Paramount screen star... who plays the leading dramatic role in "Begonia of Life" and "The Tongue War."

"You have heard of some actors that can't be 'doubled' in the movies. Well, OLD GOLD is like that. No other brand can 'double' its fine flavor and smoothness—even in the dark. That's why I picked it in the blindfold test. And that's why—from now on—Old Gold and I are going to be 'Partners in Crime.'"

Wallace Beery

How the test was made . . .
This test was conducted by the representative of a leading Eastern university and a disinterested witness selected by them. Mr. Beery was asked to smoke each of the four leading brands, while blindfolded, clearing his taste with coffee between smokes. Only one question was asked: "Which one do you like best?" He chose Old Gold.

Governor Orders Saratoga Probe

Advices Saratoga Springs Officials That He Has Directed State Constabulary to Make Investigation of Gambling Reports.

Albany, Aug. 7 (AP).—Taking substance of reports that gambling and vice are flourishing at Saratoga Springs, Governor Smith today notified the commissioner of public safety of the city, the district attorney and the sheriff of Saratoga county that he had instituted an investigation to get the truth concerning conditions.

"I have directed that members of the state constabulary in citizens' clothes police Saratoga Springs," the governor advised the three officials. "If they are able to find these conditions and you and the force under me are not, it will form basis for charges looking to your removal from office."

The only other paragraph in the governor's letter to the officials, which were identical, contained this language:

"I am in receipt of a communication making complaint of conditions at Saratoga Springs. Rumors have also come to my attention, of course supported by evidence, that gambling and vice is flourishing at Saratoga Springs."

The letters were delivered by Sergeant J. W. White of the state police. They went to Edward Sweeney, commissioner of public safety of Saratoga Springs; John B. Smith, the district attorney; and William N. Cromie, sheriff of Saratoga county. Governor Smith made his demand for strict enforcement of the law with the month's race meeting at Saratoga in its second week. He noted after rumors had been in circulation that such a step was probable.

The governor's ultimatum does not affect the betting at the race track, as this is conducted under an oral system which has never been declared illegal by the courts, but is directed against the gambling houses where various games of chance are alleged to be conducted.

ROSS STORES, INC., ELECT BACHRACK PRESIDENT

At a meeting of the directors of The Ross Stores, Inc., held at the company offices, 1107 Broadway, New York city, Benjamin Bachrack was elected president to succeed Louis W. Roskopf who died May 28. Mr. Bachrack, while financially interested in the business since its inception, only became actively interested since the death of Mr. Roskopf. Though having a long record of achievement in the commercial world, and being widely known in business circles, Mr. Bachrack is only 44 years old. His experience in the department store field dates back to the year 1888, when at the age of 14 years he commenced work in his father's store in Toronto, Canada.

In the year 1916, at the age of 32 years he returned to New York, the city of his birth, and founded the Bachrack Bros. wholesale dry goods business. In this he still retains his interest. Mr. Bachrack has a large interest also in the Klein Brothers Corporation of Chicago, Ill., which company operates a large department store in the city of Chicago, doing about $3,000,000 annually.

Paper Money Taboo in Gold and Silver Zone

Tonopah, Nev.—One and two dollar bills, owners of ill luck of desert rats and miners, are scorned in the vast sagebrush reaches of southern Nevada. Banks do not carry them to cash small checks or to make change, and most business houses refuse to place any piece of currency under $5 in the cash register.

Before 1917 gold and silver coins were almost the only medium of exchange. Aversion to paper money is natural in a region where men live and die for the yellow or silver ore. Southern Nevada owes its place on the map to the coined money.

Today there is an actual boycott on $1 and $2 bills in Tonopah and other mining camps of the state. Local banks ship away twice a month the accumulation of that denomination.

Brimstone in Rain

Babusi, Rumania.—Peasants have been thinking the end of the world has come. Rain, composed of water and brimstone and smelling of sulphur, fell for seven hours. It was the second phenomenon of the kind in the country in two months.

Hermit Steer Exiles Self in Grand Canyon

Denver, Colo.—Living alone in the mysterious canyons of the Colorado river in Grand Canyon National park is a hermit steer, now about fifteen years old.

In 1910 when the Grand canyon was a national monument supervised by the forest service, a grazing permit was given Scott Dunham of Fredonia, Ariz., and he brought his stock down Bright Angel canyon and needed them out to the plateau to graze and phantom canyons. Upon creating of the Grand canyon as a national park the steers were driven out, but one was missing. Now the national park service has discovered the hermit, first by tracking him by extra large boot prints noticed in April, and he will likely be permitted to spend his declining years in solitude.

Tropical Storm Near Florida Coast

Miami, Fla., Aug. 7 (AP).—The tropical disturbance which swept the Bahamas yesterday and last night is now believed by the weather bureau to be close in shore at a point somewhere between Miami and Jupiter Inlet, just north of West Palm Beach.

The Hawththousa & Cooper at Jupiter reported by telephone this morning a forty-mile wind with a barometer of 29.95 and falling. Miami had a gentle wind out of the northeast but the barometer here had fallen to 29.92, although the weather bureau said all danger of high winds as far south as Miami had passed.

West Palm Beach experienced gale winds last night. Some damage was done shrubbery and fruit.

Ocean Pounds Beaches Violently.
West Palm Beach, Fla., Aug. 7 (AP).—With a strong northeast wind rising steadily West Palm Beach today was drenched by a hard rain and a turbulent Atlantic Ocean was pounding viciously off the beaches. The barometer was falling rapidly.

No damage was reported, but ships on Lake Worth, separating Palm Beach from West Palm Beach, hurried to cover. The ocean was pounding fiercely, but so far the waters had not gone over the sea wall.

The Telephone Company reported its lines to Jupiter, north of here, were down.

The strong wind began about 11 o'clock last night and gradually has been increasing but there has been no great alarm among local residents.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Aug. 7 (P).—The stock market displayed a complete reversal of fortune today, rallying sharply during the morning and turning reactionary in the afternoon. Early gains of 1 to 6 points were cut down, or wiped out, and in some cases replaced by losses of 1 to 4 points.

Marking up of the call money rate from 6 to 6 1/2 per cent, following the calling of about $20,000,000 in bank loans, stimulated the selling movement.

Heavy selling of General Motors which dropped from an early high of 19 1/2, where it was up 2 1/2 points, to 18 1/2, started a wave of liquidation throughout the general list. Wheat, Aero, Houston, International Harvester, Radio, Allied Chemical and International Telephone all dropped 1/2 to 1 point below their early high levels.

Trails, which had taken little part in the recent upswing, were in brisk demand around midday on reports of expanding freight traffic, particularly on western carriers. Delaware & Hudson ran up 1/2 points, St. Louis Southwestern 3/4, Western Maryland 3 and Canadian Pacific, New York Central, Wabash, Missouri Pacific common and preferred, Texas and Pacific and "Katy" common climbed 2 points or more. They dropped with the industrials in the late selling movement.

Sears Roebuck received strong independent support, setting a new high record at 12 1/2 and holding around that level when the rest of the list turned downward. Johns-Manville ran off 1/2 points below yesterday's final quotation, and Paramount Famous Lasky, South Porto Rican Sugar, General Cable A and several others sold down 2 points or more.

Quotations given by Parker McElroy & Co., members N. Y. Stock Exchange, 120 Broadway, New York City, branch office, 250 Fair Street.

Daredevil Warner Visits Kingston

Monday afternoon J. L. Warner of the Kingston Auburn Sales was visited by "Daredevil" Warner, who was in Kingston to his automobile.

Warner is visiting every Auburn dealer in the United States and Canada in his one year of voluntary although only partial participation. He claims to be perfectly comfortable in his auto to home and expects to ride at least 150,000 miles during the course of one year. One of the companions has a key to the handle of Warner's arms and this key is to be used only in case of fire or accident.

Warner is a well-known daredevil and his feats of daring are well known in the west. While this last of his recent activities in the automobile world is not as daring as some he has accomplished, it will undoubtedly prove the hardest test of endurance he has ever attempted.

A Big Cut in Prices

Why?

MID-SUMMER, as you know, is the great sale time for Furniture; when reductions run all the way from 10 to 50 per cent.

We are firmly convinced the public does not profit by these cut-price sales.

The small reductions are usually good, but the big ones, which run all the way from 10 to 50 per cent, generally apply to what is known as "undesirables" and "slow movers."

In fact these sensational reduction sales are usually top-heavy with this class of merchandise. Otherwise, if the furniture is new and can be reduced 50 per cent then why was it priced so high in the first place?

Now contrast the situation at STOCK & CORDTS'. We prefer economy twelve months a year instead of a forced sale in mid-summer.

We are going to compete with every mid-summer Furniture sale, by simply leaving our prices alone.

Don't permit yourself to be misled by the hue-and-cry of 10 to 50 per cent reductions.

Come in and we will prove to you conclusively that we are "High Grade But Not High Priced . . . even in this month of sales."
